

Your School & the International Dimension

21st June 2007

Copthorne Hotel, Reading RG30 3UN

-
- 8.45 Registration & coffee
- 9.15 Opening address – Ike Garson, International Education Officer, Oxfordshire
- 9.20 Live video link up to Swedish school
- 9.30 Session 1 - International or global? Rationale, opportunities, initiatives and guidance - Ray Kirtley, University of Hull
- 10.30 Session 2 - Case studies on TIPD and Comenius with teachers from Reading schools
- 10.50 Coffee
- 11.20 Session 3 - The role of the international coordinator: School policy development, developing initiatives & involving the staff - Ike Garson & Ray Kirtley
- 11.50 Session 4 - Using global citizenship resources in the classroom. Embedding a developing world perspective in the school curriculum – RISC Team, Reading
- 12.30 Lunch
- 1.15 Session 5 - ECM – how can this important agenda be applied to the international dimension? Ike Garson
- 2.00 Session 6 – Live video link up to Baltimore school. Using ICT to enhance your international dimension - Ike Garson & Ray Kirtley
- 2.15 Tea
- 2.50 Session 7 - Next steps: Ideas and actions to take forward as outcomes from this conference. - Ike Garson
- 3.20 Closing remarks
- 3.30 END
-

Maximum of 60 places available.

This conference is partly subsidised by RPDN and a £45 will be applied.

To reserve your place please go to:

<http://www.oieb.org/wps/wcm/connect/oieb/Professional+development/Conferences/> and download the Booking Form which should then be faxed to 01865 428102 or posted to:

OIEB, Cricket Road Centre, Oxford OX4 3DW