

A vertical decorative graphic on the left side of the slide, consisting of three colorful kites (blue, yellow, and pink) with strings, set against a green background.

Partnership networking event

Monday 14th December 2009

Introduction and vision for partnerships

Cllr Keith Mitchell – Chairman Oxfordshire
Partnership

Cllr David Robertson – Chairman Public Service
Board

Welcome

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide. It features a vertical line of colorful triangles (blue, yellow, pink) pointing downwards, with the word 'Miss' written vertically in a small font next to them. Below the triangles is a stylized silhouette of a building with a grid of windows, and at the bottom, a group of colorful human figures in various poses.

Aims of today

- To provide partnerships the opportunity to network and share good practice
- Celebrate key successes of the last year
- Explore cross-partnership issues
- Build on the Oxfordshire Partnership identity

...In an informal way

Some partnership achievements

-
- A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide. It features three colorful kites (blue, yellow, and pink) flying upwards, connected by a vertical line. Below the kites is a stylized building with a grid of windows, and at the bottom, a group of colorful silhouettes of people of various ages and heights.
- Achieved targets in our first Local Area Agreement
  - Job clubs in Bicester and Banbury
  - Community led plans
  - Crime is reducing
  - Co-ordinated approach to breaking the cycle of deprivation
  - Strong Comprehensive Area Assessment

PSB how we've moved on

-
- A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide. It features a vertical line of four colorful triangles (blue, yellow, pink, and purple) pointing downwards. Below the triangles are three stylized buildings in white and grey. At the bottom of the graphic is a group of colorful silhouettes of people in various poses, representing a diverse group of individuals.
- Previously focused on agreeing the LAA
  - Now leading transition to a stronger performance culture
  - More than just the LAA, Oxfordshire 2030 priorities
  - Driving efficiency through smarter partnership working

Future for Partnerships in Oxfordshire

- Living in a climate of reduced finances
- Greater expectations from government (of any colour) on what partnerships deliver
- Means real opportunities to build on our strengths – total place

What do you think?
Questions

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide. It features a blue kite at the top, followed by a yellow kite, and a pink kite. Below the kites is a stylized building with a grid of windows, and at the bottom, a group of colorful silhouettes of people. The background is a light green gradient.

Oxfordshire Economic Partnership

OEP's Response to the recession

David Doughty, Chief Executive OEP

Seven thematic partnerships tables

Feel free to circulate and visit the tables of the thematic partnerships you are most interested in

13.10	Lunch and Networking at thematic partnership tables
13.40	Building low carbon communities project
14.00	Networking at thematic partnership tables
14.25	Close

Partnerships

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide. It features a vertical line with three colorful kites (blue, yellow, and pink) and a stylized building with a grid of windows at the bottom. The background is a light green gradient.

Spatial Planning
Partnership

Health and Wellbeing
Partnership

Oxfordshire Economic Partnership

Safer Communities

Oxfordshire Stronger Communities Alliance

Environment and Waste
Partnership

Children and Young People's Trust

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide consisting of three colorful kites (blue, yellow, and pink) with strings, set against a green background.

Environment and Waste Partnership

Building low carbon communities

Susie Ohlenschlager and Kelly
Gardiner

Thank you

Oxfordshire.partnership@oxfordshire.gov.uk