

Preparing for a changing climate in Oxfordshire

An event for Local Strategic Partnerships and Thematic Partnerships

Wednesday 20 January at 9.30 am coffee for a 10:00am start – 12.45 pm

Long Room, Town Hall, St Aldates, Oxford.

Item	Programme	Speaker/facilitator
1	Welcome and introduction to partnership work on climate change in Oxfordshire	Robin Buxton, Vice Chair, Environment and Waste Partnership	10:00
2	Likely climate impacts in the county; what is adaptation?	Liz Greenhalgh, UKCIP (UK Climate Impacts Programme)	10:10
3	The regional context: Adapting to climate change (NI188)		10:25
4	Local activities and examples; why relevant to LSP partners – ideas for engagement		10: 35
	a) local authorities	Paul Robinson, Oxford City Council
	b) Health implications of a changing climate	Liz Steel, Head of Public Health South Central Strategic Health Authority
	c) Environment agency : how it relates to Oxfordshire Authorities on flooding/water management	Rosemary Redmond

5	Feedback and examples of adaptation responses – work in pairs		11:05
COFFEE BREAK			11:15
6	a) How can LSPs and partner organisations start on adaptation work?	Susie Ohlenschlager, Oxfordshire County Council	11:30
	b) Local Climate Impacts Profiles and risk management.	Heather Saunders, South Oxfordshire District Council
7	Climate risk game – a hands way to get an understanding how the climate might affect your area/organisation and how risk management can help focus attention on reducing impacts.	Mark Saunders, Vale of White Horse District Council Jo Colwell, Cherwell District Council	11:45
8	What do people think? A chance for some discussion and generation of some ideas that could be taken forward in LSP action plans.	Debbie Haynes, Astrid Blackburn West Oxfordshire LSP and District Council	12:15
9	Close		12:40

This event is organised and facilitated by the Climate Change NI 188 Delivery Group:

Mark Saunders	Vale of White Horse District Council
Heather Saunders	South Oxfordshire District Council
Debbie Haynes	West Oxfordshire District Council
Paul Robinson	Oxford City Council
Johanne Colwell	Cherwell District Council
Susie Ohlenschlager	Oxfordshire County Council
Liz Greenhalgh	UK Climate Impacts Programme